

After removing the fence and trees along Spruce Street, construction fencing surrounds an area where truck after truck has delivered fill, heavy equipment has spread and compacted the rock and gravel, and brought the Phase One footprint up to necessary grade for the next step of installing geopiers.